Mr. James E. Webb
Director
Bureau of the Budget
Washington 25, D. C.

Reference is made to Admiral Hillenkoetter's letter of 14 September 1948 relative to the total budget requirements of the Central Intelligence Agency for the Fiscal Year 1950.

The following summary reflects by objects of expenditure the estimated obligations for the Fiscal Year 1950:

25X

The total estimate of [] for the budget year is considered a reasonable and conservative request to enable this Agency to adequately perform its assigned functions including those additional activities approved by the National Security Council in the interests of the Nation's security.

25X

Very truly yours,

E. K. WRIGHT
Brig. Gen., USA
Acting Director of Central Intelligence
